

Photos by Karen Vibert Kennedy/
for The Journal News

Show has fun with science

Above: "Mad Scientist" Jimmy Joule, left, and volunteer Matthew Berk, 10, of Eastchester, demonstrate a liquid called dragon's breath, which is used by magicians for special effects. Joule was on hand at the Yonkers Public Library for a Mad Science show entitled "Fire and Ice."

Left: Joule has fun with dry ice during the demonstration.